Dear Parent/Guardian:

As you are most likely aware, the Burnaby RCMP are investigating a child luring incident that took place on Friday afternoon in the Burnaby Heights area. Please review their warning to parents that was issued to media today.

Student and staff safety is always our priority. We've alerted our staff and we are reminding students of the importance of staying on safe public routes when travelling to and from school as well as the other safety precautions below.

We would appreciate it if you would also take some time to review with your children these safety precautions.

- Tell an adult immediately if you encounter someone or something that makes you worry or feel uncomfortable.
- Stay with friends. Don't travel alone.
- Always stay in well-supervised areas.
- Call 911 in the event of an emergency.

If you have any information that will help police, please contact the Burnaby RCMP Investigative Support Team at 604-294-7922 or Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-TIPS.

Thank you for your support in helping to keep our school community safe.

Stephanie Miller
